NORFOLK PEOPLE WED HERE.

Augustus Kahn and Miss Schlossberg Surprise Their Friends.

Augustus Kahn, of Norfolk, and Miss Frances E. Schlossberg, of Portsmouth, were married Sunday at the home of Rev. J. H. Schwartz, on Twenty-eighth street. The young couple came to this city Sunday with a party of friends presumably on a pleasure trip, but soon after they ar-rived here they announced to their friends that they proposed to get mar-ried. Mr. Kahn had secured the mar-riage license at Portsmouth Saturday. They left Sunday night for Washing-ton and other Northern c.ties and on ringe license at Portsmouth Saturday. They left Sunday night for Washington and other Northern c.ties and on their return they will be at home to their friends in Norfolk. Those attending the wedding were: Harry Reyner, of this city, and Messrs. M. Jesselison and H. Cohn, of Norfolk. Mr. Kahn is the president of a retail shoe company of Norfolk and both he and his bride are popular with a number of friends in this city.

WHERE SURGERY FAILS

Cutting Won't Remove the Cause of Piles.

Piles.

Piles mean more than merety the pain of the stubborn little tumors. There is a condition inside that must be dealt with. Cutting is usually followed with later and worse attacks. A permanent cure can only be made by bettering the condition of the parts and getting a free circulation of the blood.

Hem-Rold cures all kinds of piles by internal action right on the cause. Sold by A. E. G. Klor. Newport News, Va., and money back if it fails. It per bottle. Do. Leonhardt, Station B, Buffalo, N. Y.
